

M. D. COLLINS
STATE SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

State
Department of Education
Atlanta, Georgia

September 24, 1936

Dear Frances,

We received your order for the coat hangers. Since the postage on the hangers costs about twice as much as the hangers cost, we have decided, after making a close study of the problem, that it will be cheaper for you to buy them in Athens or pick them up in the street than for us to wrap and ship you a supply.

Love,

Dad